Relation: I was his Sunday school teacher when he was a young teenager

Dear family of Robert Saruk I want to send my heartfelt sympathies to you all on the passing of Robert. I remember him fondly as a young person in the congregation of Myrnam Bible Church when Donna Berck and myself were ministering there in your community. He and his family were a great encouragement to us then. I lived in Myrnam from 1971 to 1975. Keep living the faith of Jesus Christ in your community. God will be your Comforter.

Tribute from Carole Myshaniuk

My deepest sympathy to the Saruk Family. Robert was a kind and respectful man and a great asset to our community. May he rest in peace.
