Relation: Relationship - How did you know the deceased?

Clovis, Colleen, Brett, Jean, David and all your families, Our hearts go out to you at this sad time. Looking at the picture of your mom, Clovis, I remember the camping trip at Crimson Lake when we were discussing the picking of berries in the park. I was trying to speak French and your mom was doing her best to speak English. Together we managed to carry on an understandable conversation. She was a sweet lady and your family will miss her deeply.

Alice Marie Bouchard was one of the classiest women I have ever met. She was kind, caring, grateful, shy, but a friendly person. She was a wonderful mother to all her loving children and wonderful wife to her husband. She was an angel in making and now she has her wings. May you all cherish your memories, speak of her often and most of all, hurt a little less each day. Sending love and hugs to you all.
