Tribute from Gordon & Brenda Kissel

Relation: Friends

To the family of Anne Berlinguette, our sincere condolences. She left a memorable impression on us at the St. Therese Hospital when our eldest son Jamison was born in 1987 - she was the kindest, most patient and most helpful. I often reminded her of the compassionate impression she made so many years ago. What a beautiful lady.

Mark/Debbie and Dave/Lorrie: Was sorry to read that your Mom has passed. She was a wonderful neighbour and friend for the many years we knew her. I will always remember the walks her and I took when she lived at the farm. We shared many visits while she lived on the corner.

She loved you boys and all the grandkids very much. Always remembered.

Your mom was such a great friend to mom, and we were so blessed to have known her, we were very close neighbors on the farm, and remember how your parents and my parents shared the farm work together when it was needed. Mom was so fond of your mom, for the last 7 months they spend their time remembering things they did as friends and neighbors.
