Our deepest condolences to all of Anne's family at this time. It was an honor to meet Anne at Ken and Laurie's house a few times over the years, and we always enjoyed hearing about her. Ken, Laurie, Nick, and Mackenzie shared wonderful stories and spoke of her with the greatest love and esteem.

Margie,

I met your Mother in Church in Derwent where she came when we were getting our Easter baskets blessed. She made my day by saying that she sees I made such a nice Easter basket.

I asked Kev. who that sweet little lady was that made such a nice compliment to little old me; bless her soul!

Thank you for the message you left on the phone for Pat. I let her know on her 81st birthday lunch when I saw her & I know she was sorry to hear the news.

*May you find some comfort in the memories you have with your Mother.

Sincerely,

Connie.
