We are so very sorry for the loss of your Mom, Baba, & great Baba.

She was a lovely lady who deeply loved her family & her church. When we think of her, we see that beautiful big smile & the twinkle in her eyes.

She is now with your Dad, Gido, & great Gido.

Our sincere condolences.

Very sorry to read that Annie had passed away.

Earlier this summer while visiting Aunty Helen Kupchenko, we were able to spend some time with Annie and enjoy her smile and cheeky humor.

Big to the loss the community and our family.

Deepest sympathies to the Logozar family

Gerry and Ellen Kordoski

Relation: Aunty

May you all remember the feisty woman she was. I remember her laughter, when I would hug and kiss her, kissing her loud, hug her extra long would start to make her giggle. She would laugh until tears rolled down her face. She called Mike - John saying he looks like a John, so to her he will always be John. My memories of Aunty Annie will always bring a smile and yes laughter...our deepest condolence Samantha & Mike (John)
