Perhaps they are not stars, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy. ~Author Unknown

Dear Marjolaine and family, So sorry to hear about the loss of such a wonderful lady. I am a teacher today because of the influence your mom had on me. Treasure the memories. Sincere regards to all.

Tribute from Doris Hamerl

Relation: Mother of a close friend

My heartfelt sympathy, Marj, and to the rest of your family, on your mother's death. It hasn't been an easy time for you, has it? I can only be with you in Spirit as you say goodbye and grieve her death. I remember meeting her in St. Paul; and, of course, I have a great souvenir of her sewing . . . remember the Snoopy pillowcase, Marj? I still have it and had it on my wall as a "mural" for many years. Have been using it occasionally since I moved here.

I'll send a donation to The Salvation Army in memory of your Mother as a "Gift of Hope" to a Third World Country to help families to help themselves.

Will give you a call after a bit of time (lots to tell you!!). Just don't hold your breath!

Love & prayers, Doris

Ma chère Marjolaine et famille,

Nos sympathies les plus sincères! J'ai, Georgette, tellement de beaux souvenirs de ta maman. Elle était toujours accueillante, charmante et chaleureuse envers moi lors de mes nombreuses visites à la ferme. 'The good old day!' Que le Seigneur te donne le courage nécessaire pendant ce temps difficile. C'est toujours si triste de perdre une maman.
