To Tina and family, Warren, Cheryl and all the Luciak families: Psalm 23.Psalm 91. The Lord is near to the broken-hearted.He is near to those crushed in spirit. He is full of compassion.He is full of mercy, truth and love. Holy Spirit is our ever present comforter, teacher, exhorter and friend. Jesus wept for Lazarus. He weeps for you. He shall wipe every tear. He is always near. The Lord, our God shall wipe every tear. He knows our pain, and every injustice. His eye is on the sparrow. And I know He watches you all.Holy Spirit come and draw each one now to you. When nothing makes sense. Trust in Him. Read the psalms.God's word will bring comfort.

Love and fervent prayers, Colette Tremblay

Tribute from Karen Carter

Relation: Spouse of a Nursing * classmate

Dearest Tina and family, please accept our most sincere condolences. I only learned of Don's passing today, July 13. I have recently been reminiscing and remembering our time at the Misericordia and was wondering how you and your family have been. The years have flown by, kids grown up and grandkids arrived and I regret not making time for friends. Please take care of yourself, you are in my thoughts and prayers. Most sincerely, Karen
