Relation: confornting the ones in pain

My deepest condolences to Family and Friends,

It breaks my heart to see young ones like Douglas separated from those who loved him. I know that there is no words that can alleviate the pain of losing a dear loved one. Death it's like a stab in the heart.

Yet, I want to share with you what someone shared with me and helped me. And that is Hope, having the hope of seeing my brother again and many others like Douglas reunited with their families has helped to cope with my loss and endure difficult days. The Bible has given me hope and comfort. I wanted to share that with you too. 1 Corinthians 15: 26 says: "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing" Death is an enemy since it separate us from our loved ones. God has the purpose of reuniting us with our loved ones through a resurrection, and eliminate death forever.

Jesus clearly said: in John 11:28 "I am the resurrection and the life". He also said: "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...

What a wonderful day that will be, to see all those sleeping in death reunited with their families.

God plans of creating a paradise earth as the beginning, and bringing back those who are sleeping in death is a promise that will be fulfill. (Revelation 21:3,4)

May this message warm your hearts,

Sincerely

Z.L

Tribute from Sarah

Levi and I broke up 4 years ago, and we haven't spoken since. Not out of hate. We didn't have the best relationship, but I never hated him. I cared about him deeply. I am in such disbelief that he's gone. My heart breaks for his family, the mother of his child, and his son. I hope they always remember the good memories they have of Levi, such as his passion for guitar/music and his love for animals, especially cats.
