I was so sorry to hear of Faye's passing. I had not seen her since high school as I moved away from St. Paul right after that. But I remember that she was beautiful with a kind heart and a wonderful sense of humour! The world is short one less bright light, but I hope you can find comfort in sharing many wonderful memories during this difficult time.

Relation: school mate

My condolences to the Garneau family. Faye was taken way too young and way too soon. Faye was good friends with my little sister Wanda, but I will always remember her being so full of energy and ready to go somewhere or do something. Faye certainly lit up the room she was in, and she was always making us laugh. Rest in peace Faye.
