Tribute from Dawn Van Skiver

Relation: Cousin

Rest in peace dear cousin. I will remember the fun we had as children, before we moved so far away. We had so much time at your place and always looked forward to going there. Though we were parted and for many years and you had your life, some fun, some pain, I always admired your strength. The reunion that you and Aunt Sue spearheaded was one that brought our family back together again. Thank you so much for having been the wonderful person you were.

Condolences Jerry and Brian. You are in my heart and in my prayers.
