Dear family, please know that George will be missed by many; even friends like myself that you might not know or remember. I trust that the love and support of your close friends and family will help you during this difficult time. I will pray for you. I can only imagine how George's heart is burning with Joy on his heavily route to Emmaus; meeting our Lord Jesus! He will be welcomed home with open arms. May this Joy help you through this difficult time. Sylvie

Tribute from Christophe Durieu

Relation: We attended the Emmaus programme

What I remember most from George was his presence, and his being present in the moment. He seemed to not value so much his outwards achievement that so many would only dream of. He struck me as an amazingly good man....seeking ways to become a better one. I don't know whether George knew how he touched all of us... It seems that so often we are kept to see the impact we have on others! The good Lord bless you George, you and all your family.
