Tribute from Aaron and Cindy Krahn

Relation: Aunt

You didn't die just recently,
You died some time ago.
Although your body stayed a while,
And didn't really know.

For you had got Alzheimer's,
You failed to comprehend.
Your body went on living.
But your mind had reached its end.

So we've already said, "Goodbye",
To the person that we knew.
The person that we trully loved,
The person that was, "You".

And so we meet again today,
To toast your bodies end.
For it was true and faithful,
Until right at the end.

And so, when we remember,
We'll think of all the rest.
We'll concentrate on earlier,
And remember all the best.

For in the real scheme of things,
Your illness wasn't long.

Compared to all the happiness,
You brought your whole life long.

We think of you as yesterday,
When you were fit and well.
And when we're asked about you,
It's those things that we'll tell.

And so we meet in 'membrance,
Of a mind so fit and true.
We're here to pay our last respects
To say that, "We love you".

Alphonse, Jackie and family,
Your mom was a lovely woman - her quiet gentle manor and she had a smile that could light up a room. Some of my favorite memories of your mom are all the times we played cards or games at baba's table. Or how she would always step in after dinner or supper to do the dishes so we didn't have to. My heart aches for you and your family during this time. Take comfort in all your memories and know that she was loved and will truly be missed
