Uncle George, Eva and Anthony, our thoughts are with you. Auntie was a very special lady, and my childhood is filled with many memories of her kindness as Anthony and us boys set up farmyards under her feet in the kitchen.

Uncle George, Eva, Anthony and family - our thoughts are with you now and always. Auntie Irene was such a special person...family was always the most important to her and she always made everyone feel welcome in her home. She has always been such a hugh part of my lifetime memories of "visits to the farm". I will always remember time spent with her and Uncle George whenever we came to visit and stay at their home - her smile, her wonderful cooking, her garden and mostly, her love and pride in her family. May thoughts of this love comfort you all.

Such an appropriate obituary... as that would be Auntie Irene's sense of humor .... my favorite memory.... watching Auntie Irene and Uncle George Dance....what a gorgeous couple.... their graceful steps and their amazing synchronicity ... so much more beautiful than Ginger Rodgers... and Fred Astair....

Our hearts go out to Eva and Anthony and their families.... but.. especially to ... Auntie Irene's.... Best Friend ....Uncle George

Lots of Love

Wanda Goruk..... and Terry Too
