Relation: friend

Life's journey knows both hill and plain
For each this road must end
And gift of life is only paid
If someone calls us "friend"

There are the years that come and go
Where no one counts the cost
For seeds of kindness gently sown
Are never counted lost

When time has reaped its final toll
And life has passed us by
Its friends who touched our deepest soul
Who made life all worthwhile

Many fond memories Jack - Rest in Peace

Marguerite and family. We were so surprised to hear of Jack's passing, we visited with him at the Coop not long ago and he said he was doing really well and he looked good too. It is with heavy hearts that we send our most sincere condolences. We will truly miss his smiling face and the great conversations we used to have whenever he came to haul our cattle to market. To the entire Purificati family our condolences. Jack was like a younger brother to our Mom, Willma Sutton Blyth. We couldn't think of a better steward of the land our grandfather William Sutton once farmed! Jack's quiet, warm personaility was a blessing everytime we returned to the St. Lina area to visit.
