Tribute from Lorraine Kyle Edgar

Relation: Friend of his sister Irene

Irene so sorry for your brothers passing. I lost one many years ago so can understand your sorrow.

Tribute from Leonard Huot

Relation: Uncle

I am deeply saddened by the sudden loss of uncle Jim. He will be sorrowfully missed by myself and family. Jim was a pleasure to know and I will always remember him for his kindness, candor and eagerness to share advice.

Words cannot express the heartfelt thanks for positive impact Jim has left with friends, family and community. Thank-you Jim for mentoring core family values and always taking time to share stories and a laugh.

Jim was most supportive over the years to myself, his niece Katherine and our children; him and Marsha always took time for us to visit. Thank-you for being an integral part of our wedding so many years ago including Clayton and Carla.

Jim was all about family, he graciously took the time to attend myself and Katherine's sons wedding on the west coast which was the last time we had opportunity to visit. That will be my lasting memory with him on the coast enjoying incredible sunset on water at Poet's cove, big smile enjoying the view with a cocktail.

Thank-you Jim for caring and being a pillar of the Twerdochlib family. Best memories over the years include attending family gatherings with all Twerdochlib brothers present, as a young man they roasted me into the family was a great laugh and lots of fun. Thank-you Jim for your steadfast hospitality, welcoming nature and positive demeanor you maintained. As a widower, Jim continued to send Christmas cards; we will miss the many little things such as this. you will be dearly missed.....

Regretfully, I am unable to attend the funeral but will be there in spirit and soul with prayers.

With kind regards,

Leonard
