

REMEMBERING
Katrina MACLELLAN

January 14, 1995 - November 5, 2020

Katrina Ann MacLellan is sadly missed by her family, friends, and community. She was born on January 14, 1995, and taken from us on November 5, 2020, at the age of 25 years. She will forever be remembered by her father and mother, Jim and Debra MacLellan; her sister, Tracy-Lynne MacLellan; her sister and brother-in-law, Courtney and Kyle Gulayets; and her precious niece, Hannah Lucinda Gulayets. Katrina was predeceased by both sets of grandparents; her uncle, Ray Riehl; and aunt, Margaret Ann Goodemote. Katrina was loved by everyone who ever met her, and has made a lasting impact on the Elk Point and area community. She recently finished school at SAIT, and had earned her Red Seal Journeyman Heavy Equipment Technician after a 5-year apprenticeship at B&R Eckel's Transport in Bonnyville. A Private Viewing by invitation will be held at Grace Gardens Funeral Chapel. A Private Funeral Service by invitation will be held at Elk Point Baptist Church, Elk Point. The Funeral Service will be available to view online at the following link: <https://www.youtube.com/c/elkpointbaptistchurch>. Katrina will be laid to rest with her grandparents in Irma Cemetery, Alberta following cremation. For those who wish, a tribute donation may be made in Katrina's name to STARS Air Ambulance c/o 5626 - 51 Street, St. Paul, AB. T0A 3A1.
