Tribute from Bernie Dupuis

Relation: Childhood friend

My sincere regrets to all my old friend's family. Pete (Pitou) was my first childhood friend when we moved from Montreal to St. Paul in 1945. We were neighbors as I lived with my Grandparents, Dr. Decosse. He helped me learn English, introduced me to hunting rabbits with slingshots, how to play Kick the Can, make fudge when his Mom was working and we listened to a Hank Williams record over and over. Lots of other good memories. May he rest in peace.
