Tribute from Lorraine Lawton

Relation: Our Lady's Hospital friend

My heart and prayers are going to Lilly's family as you miss her earthly presence. .She was a lady of few words in the coffee room but what she said was positive and humorous. I was thrilled to see that she took time for her friends at coffee time in her retirement.

I very sorry of your loss. I know the emptiness of the loss of a parent. The happy memories will fill that emptiness with time. Our love to your family at this time.

Donna, Betty, Danny and families, our sincere sympathy on the loss of your Mother. Caring thoughts are with you in this time of sorrow and loss. I certainly have some wonderful memories of our families good times together as we were growing up.

May the love your Mother so generously gave you be your strength, your consolation, and may the love she still sends you bring you joy, even at this time of such great loss. Jeanette & Gerry Connelly
