Tribute from Hayden and Danielle Revering

Relation: Friend of the granddaughters

Girls,

Hayden and I wanted to send you our thoughts and prayers during this most trying time. It is so very hard to lose someone who you love so dearly. You do have good friends that are praying for you and your family to help you get through this time.

When we lose someone we tend to concentrate on the hurt that we feel at their loss. One thing I know is that people that we lose that have loved us so unconditionally would never want to see us in pain, they would want us to know that now they have their arms wrapped around you in that special hug everywhere that you are. You are never alone because an angel joined your corner on January 10th and she will never leave you.

Remember her smile, because it was a beautiful one, and remember to live the life that you were meant to, a life that she helped form. Remember to honor her love for you by loving your family and your friends, and smile because I see her smile in both of you.

God Bless

Danielle and Hayden Revering
