Tribute from Judy Fenton

Relation: Friend

Deepest sympathy to the Chomlak family on the loss of your Mother, Grandmother, She was a loving, hard working lady who was so very proud of her family. She gave much to her family, community and church. It is always very hard to say our final goodbyes to those we love. It is the last opportunity to proudly respect the wishes of our loved one. May your memories of the family life with your Mom bring you comfort at this time.

Baba Mary was a mother to all the people who she met. I loved her laugh, and how her eyes lit up every time she seen a little kid. She cooked better then any professional cook and I'll always remember all the good talks we had while I cut her hair. She is gonna raise heck when she enters heaven. She has a heart of gold and will be welcomed with open arms at the golden gates.
