Tribute from Norman Magnin

Relation: My Uncle

To the whole family, I offer my condolences. Uncle Moe was a great man (one of the best) and I remember finding him at family gatherings by locating his cowboy hat or outside having a smoke. He was a huge influence on my life in my youth, as the farm in St. Lina was a second home. Always a kind smile and a great laugh, when he wasn't working you could find him on his easy chair. Had some fairly deep conversations with him during my lifetime, and he made a better man. God bless.

Tribute from Daniel De Freitas

The obituary for your father was very beautifully written. I can see how very loved he was by you all. I can also see what a truly positive influence your father was in your lives. He will live on through you.

Our deepest heartfelt condolences go out to you Morris, Anthony, to your mom and all your family.

With all our love,
Danny & Veronica

On behalf of Jim Blackburn and myself, our heartfelt condolences to Genny and family on the passing of "Moe". For many years, Moe and Genny have lived next to Jim and throughout, were his friends and caring neighbors. Their role in helping him can not be overstated.

Rest in peace, Moe, and know how much you were appreciated.

Tribute from Betty Robinet Santa

Relation: friend

Genny, so sorry to hear of Moe's passing. Tried to find you over the years without luck. My daughter Deb Diggins and son Peter Robinet remember you two very fondly. I will always be grateful for the good care you took of them. Peter has 3 sons and Deb has 2 daughters, one of who is an Olympic cross country skier, Jessie Diggins who will be in the February Olympics. She looks a lot like her mom. Hope you are well. I lost my second husband 2 years ago and it's always tough. Looks like you have lots of grandkids to keep you busy. Lots of love. Betty
