Tribute from Elaine Doonanco

Relation: Student and colleague and friend

Nellie ( Mrs. Kindraka) was my grade two teacher, and also the grade two teacher for both of my sons; she was also a colleague on the Glendon school staff. I always wondered how this amazing lady was able to teach her class in the morning, then dash home at noon to tend to a meal for the working men on the farm, and then dash back to school and teach afternoon classes. The good teacher, and the good wife, indeed.

Nellie had the ability to tell a joke like no one else. Her jokes were unique and told with such expression that everyone sought her company at gatherings.

The world has lost a good woman; she will be missed.

My sincere sympathy is extended to Patsy, Diane, and Carey Lynn, and their families.
