Tribute from Kim Faithful

Relation: Relationship - How did you know the deceased?

Rest in Peace capan...love you always... Jace, Kiana, Keith Jr, Arianna

Tribute from Martha Cardinal-Stanley-Kameosit

Relation: Uncle Sam Kameosit was married to Norma's mother, Ellen. Uncle Sam Kameosit is my mother, Elizabeth Stanley-Kameosit's brother.

I've known Norma Quinney-Faithful for a long time. I visited Norma while she was still in good health and reminisced the good ole days of my family & relatives, gave me bannock, soup and berries. I'm gonna miss that mother figure from Norma...I ask God to send special blessing upon the family with peace and love. R.I.P. auntie Norma & send the angels with you...I will come & spend time with you for last time soon. Love & HUGs!

Tribute from Lynne Morley

Relation: Relationship - How did you know the deceased?

To Clarence (Donna). Bill and I are so sorry for your loss. With much love, Lynne and Bill.

Tribute from charmaine waskahat

Relation: Relationship - How did you know the deceased?

I knew Norma through my mom Veronica Waskahat, when i drove my mom to visit she would welcome us into her home like we were part of the family...she always a had a good word of advice especially raising my autistic daughter on my own...i will miss visiting her and my mom together

Tribute from Dennis Wells

Relation: friend of family

I remember Norma growing up just outside Frog Lake First Nations. They use to travel by horse and wagon to hire my dad George Wells to Elk-Point. In my years knowing Norma I have never seen her upset, she was such a gentle person, always there to help or listen.

I grew up with her family and she will be missed RIP Norma your job on earth is done.

Tribute from Daughter valerie

Relation: she was my loving mother

Dear mom it took me awhile to tell you that I 'll never forget my times with you, for you were so outspoken like your mom. Never in my life did i see cree native woman speak english as good as both of you or conduct yourselfs businesswise also thanks for giving me life, and being there for me when I lost your grandson Evan I know your in heaven watching and praying for us your family.
