Judy, Dayna & families,

We are saddened to hear your loss of your mom & baba. During my teen years I spent time at the Zacharko home- there are memories from back then but the one that really stands out is that Olga's heart was full of "kindness". And Yes Marten-her cheering at "GA" at sport events.

When I received the news on Olga's passing my eyes filled with water. I came here in a difficult time of my life 12 years ago, but Bill and Olga took me in like parents. We spent many times visiting, drinking a few beers, laughing and consoulling each other. I find it difficult to look at the house now and know it is empty. I will miss her deeply.
