Anne Marie, Adrian and Emily .. We are so sorry for your tragic loss. Find strength in each other. It is so difficult to say goodbye to the ones we love so much. Find peace in your hearts knowing Randy is safe in the arms of God .. We know there are no words at this time to lessen your pain, take comfort knowing there are so many people who share in your pain and care for you dearly. Sending all of you great big hugs. We are always here for all of you if you need anything..God bless

Tribute from Melissa Hetu

Relation: uncle

Dear Anne-Marie and family,

My sincere condolences to you and your entire family. I know the Bellis community has lost an incredible man. Though I've only met Randy once back in 1993, I've always kept nice memories of my trip to Bellis. Thanks to photos and updates from grand-ma and mom, I felt like we were always connected to him. My mom was so proud to show me the bracelet he had told her to buy upon her last trip in September. My thoughts go out to Adrian and Emily during this difficult time. I'm sending you courage, strength and positive thoughts to help you get through these heartbreaking times.

My apologies for not being at the service this week.

Sending my deepest condolences to you all.

Best,

Melissa

Tribute from Chuck Goruk

Relation: Childhood friend

Dear Russ Family! My deepest condolences! Randy was one of my best childhood friends growing up in Bellis. We had so much fun together hanging out and playing sports. Even though I haven't seen Randy for a long time, I'll never forget his kind and caring nature and sense of humor. I wish you all the best as you cope with your loss. Take care!

Tribute from Tanya Fontaine Porozni

Relation: friend

Anne Marie, I wanted to say this today at the service but I lost my nerve.

Adrien and Emily, I hardly knew your dad, but what I did know is that he was intelligent, humble, kind and he loved you both and your mom.

A while back I attended a professional development workshop and the facilitator asked people to think of their favorite teacher. Then he asked us "what do you remember about that teacher? Do you remember the math or language lesson? No. The answer is that you remember how that teacher made you feel.

And so it was with your dad. When I heard the tragic news I remembered the last time I spoke to him. It was at the Willington Fair. I don't remember what we talked about but I remember thinking, "that Randy is a really nice guy." and I walked away feeling good.

In today's world, it sometimes seems like money and status matter the most. It's not true and your dad knew this and he lived it. He was truly an honorable and respectful man. Which is the reason I drove and hour to attend the memorial service of a man I hardly know. Out of honor and respect.

Take care,

Tanya Fontaine Porozni
