Tribute from Z. V. Labonte

Relation: sharing words of consolation

My deepest condolences to Family and Friends of Raymond Bouchard,

It breaks my heart to see young ones like Raymond separated from those who loved him. I lost someone in death too. I know that there is no words that can alleviate the pain of losing a dear loved one. Death it's like a stab in the heart.

Yet, I want to share with you what someone shared with me and helped me. And that is Hope, having the hope of seeing my brother again and many others Raymond reunited with their families has helped to cope with my loss and endure difficult days. The Bible has given me hope and comfort. I wanted to share that with you too. 1 Corinthians 15: 26 says: "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing" Death is an enemy since it separate us from our loved ones. God has the purpose of reuniting us with our loved ones through a resurrection, and eliminate death forever.

Jesus clearly said: in John 11:28 "I am the resurrection and the life". He also said: "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...

What a wonderful day that will be, to see all those sleeping in death reunited with their families.

God plans of creating a paradise earth as the beginning, and bringing back those who are sleeping in death is a promise that will be fulfill. (Revelation 21:3,4)

May this message warm your hearts,

Sincerely

Z. Labonte

Tribute from Carolyn Marcichiw

Relation: Ex brother in law

The Raymond I knew was a terrific person. He dropped everything to assist anyone of his family members who needed him. I loved the way he accepted everyone for who they were.

Dale I hope you and the kids will heal in time and remember all the great moments that you shared together.

Tribute from Paul E Boisvert

Relation: Long-time acquaintance... and former student...

Mere words do not suffice to express the condolences that we wish to extend to all those who love Raymond... May knowing that he was an important part of the lives of so many help ease the pain you feel as you mourn his passing. Always remembered and not forgotten.
