On behalf of William and Bernice Dinter and families, we would like to extend our deepest sympathies to all of the Guilbault family. I personally remember the summer that Janet and I were together being goofy teens, Mr Guilbault would try and give us heck but would turn around and laugh at what ever antics we were up too. He sure loved his whole family. He will be sadly missed.

My sympathy and prayers to you and your family in this time of loss. Rene and I had many neighborly conversations before I left Mallaig area to come to the States. Our families did many things together over the yrs., such as picking blueberries near Beaver River. His mom knew where to find the best patches.
