Tribute from harold spoon

Relation: friend who came to Moose Factory to teach us of his ways and passing on his knowledge. .. great man to know. .

we will always remember this wise and friendly man . He showed respect for his people as well as to others who were fortunate to have met him. I along with my Moose Factory people were surprised to hear of the passing of such an honorable person . Fly with the spirits my late friend.

Tribute from Clarence Trapper

Relation: Acquaintance

My condolences to the family of this man I met him when he came east to my home land it was an honor to learn alittle bit from him meegwetch

Tribute from Addiction Counsellor Marjorie Lalonde

Relation: He was our cultural resource person for our treatment center.

It has been an Honor to briefly know Roderick. I appreciated his presence at Beaver Lake Wah-pow Treatment Center. We enjoyed his humor and personal commitment to our clients. Past clients looked forward to his day here when he came to share his knowledge, wisdom and spiritual light.
