Tribute from Gordon & Brenda Kissel

Relation: Friends of family

To the family of Rose Wrobel - Alex and Emilia Rarog (my grandparents) lived across the street from Mr. & Mrs. Wrobel for many years. As a young girl, I recall her always smiling and waving or shouting a hello whenever we were visiting and that our Baba often said what a wonderful neighbor she was. Years later, I had the privilege of having Kim as a student at the Regional High School, and we have become close friends with the other side of the family, esp. Eileen Elanik, Brenda Elanik & Gordon & Belvia Wrobel & family. Sincere condolences from Gordon & Brenda (nee Wengzynowski) Kissel.

Tribute from Donald Moulds

Relation: a friend

To Rose's family, I offer my sincere condolences on Rose's passing. It was a privilege to have known Rose during her time at Lakeside Legion Manor. Rose was a pleasure to meet and get to know during my time at Pioneer Housing Foundation. I knew I could always depend on Rose's thoughts on matters impacting seniors within our community. We will remember her great baking and ongoing contribution to bake sales helping with the seniors club. Rose always talked about how fortunate she was to have the support from her family. I count myself fortunate in having met Rose and the friendship we had.
