Tammy what can I say....you are one of the most loved and blessed beautiful ladies that I have had the pleasure of knowing....you have made me laugh, smile and just want to be the best that I can be....you always were looking out for everyone without any questions....just the love and tenderness you have shown each and every one of us.....that to me is more than anything I have been blessed to have had from you and will hold in my heart....you have done a wonderful job as a mother to Jordan...he is a handsome young man....and so lucky to have you for a mom.....your family will miss you each and everyday.....and also all of us....as I try to understand you leaving so young....I will smile knowing you are not in any pain and looking over us all....and Jordan.....that will make each day a little easier....May God hold you in his loving arms....My Dear Friend.....Love Kelly
