Tribute from Doreen Younghans

Relation: Friend

Thoughts and prayers to all the family at this time. Many great memories of our curling days

---

Tribute from Penney Ford

Relation: Friend

Our sincere sympathies to all of the family. Colleen was a kind, gracious, hardworking, loving person and will be missed by family, friends and community. Heaven has gained an Angel and I'm hoping that the sadness lessens and only the good, happy memories remain for all of you. I loved to have chats with your mom over the years. I first remember her when you had the booth at Whitney Lake and we, as kids, would walk over and get candy. She was always so friendly! She will be missed - such a gracious lady! Love and hugs to all.

My heart is broken again receiving the news our Auntie Colleen has passed away. I will cherish and place all my memories I have of you from my childhood to now deep in my heart forever. I'm so grateful we spoke on the phone before Christmas. Loosing now 5 family members in a year and a half is unbelievable to anyone. I pray for strength every day. I will miss you dearly when I come home to Heinsburg.

I'm so sorry we cannot be there with everyone. Our love to you Rocky Joanne, and family. Lora Gary and family.

Love you Auntie Colleen You will never be forgotten.

Your family in Australia...Bryan Marlene Monique Kaylah Cody Anita Paul Bailey Pepper, Jet ( in heaven ), Michael Deanne Willow xx
