Tribute from Brian and Jeanette McAlpine

Relation: friend

Obviously, at 91, I hope and suspect, your Dad had lead a good life.

His last few years I'm sure were marked with the challenges that come with the years, but I know you were there for him, and your mom, when it counted. You've have been a good son and I'm certain, made him proud to his last breath. On Saturday, remember him fondly, even if there were 'tough' times , for things were not easy for that generation. Your Mom will need you know more than ever.

Sincerest condolences Darrell and family,

Brian and Jeanette McAlpine

(PS..I'm sure it wont be played at service, but re-listen to a song from the early '90's by Mike and the Mechanics called "The Living Years".. a great tribute song after loosing a father. Try i-Tunes or other web based sources)

Tribute from Raymond and Margaret Bobowski

Relation: friend and business associate

In all our relationships with Bill we have found him to be most personal and thoughtful. His interests in the community were very honest.

Our condolences to Mildred and the family for your loss and we are certain that he has gone to a better place.
