Our Deepest Sympathy to Lorraine and the Family

Tribute from Herb & Edith Krekoski

Relation: Friend

Dear Lorraine & family, Our sincerest sympathies on the loss of Bill. Herb has many wonderful memories of Bill and they shared a love for music. Herb enjoyed the times they played together and there was always a story to be told. Herb enjoyed it when Bill came for a haircut and they could reminisce about the good times they had. Bill will be remembered and missed. Herb & Edith Krekoski

Tribute from Randy Koroluk

Relation: Great great uncle

Dear Lorraine, Zonia, Kathy, Pat, and your families. I was so proud to have known your husband (dad) and so remember the childhood days of all the joy, giggles... and especially music. My dad always made time for Bill and told me many times what a good man he was. The fun times with our families will always stay with me and the caring and respect I felt between your dad and mine - and how you all have treated me. Rest in peace uncle Bill and I assure you that your values and beliefs will live on with the children you have raised and people you have touched. Love Randall.
